

The Grace from His Presence

“Behold, I am with you always, to the end of the ages.”

(Mt 28:20)

The pearl of great price (Mt 13:45-46) in the New Testament era is the Lord Himself (Rev 1:8). Whoever enters into the reality of Revelation 3:20 shall enjoy the delightful treasure of Psalm 119:57. The saints will discover the true knowledge of God (Ps 119:90,142). They shall feast upon the banquet table of the Lord (Ps 119:160,162). The waters of their hearts shall be mightily stirred up to offer the sacrifices of Psalm 119:169-170. Praises will be upon their lips daily (v. 164,171,175). Their inner longings and love shall be deepened (v. 174,167).

What is the beauty of this treasure of all generations? It's the steadfast love of the Lord (v. 159). It is the key to answered prayers (v. 149). It is the booster strength to build a holy life (v. 145). You shall order your steps alright with the Lord (v. 133). You shall have an unquenchable hunger for His word (v. 127). You shall be far from the oppression of men (v. 134).

Where should your heart incline to in life? It is Psalm 119:112. For this is the source of true joy (v. 111). When you developed this inner life, you shall proclaim daily: “you are my hiding place and my shield; I hope in your word.” (v.114) God desires to do His good pleasure upon you: “Make your face shine upon your servant...” (v. 135). According to the greatness of His tender mercies, He shall grant you the grace of favours. Amen (Ps 119:156; 30:7)
