

Open Heaven Portal Is Our Inheritance (II)

“When He had been baptized, Jesus came up immediately from the water; and behold, the heavens were opened to Him, and He saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting upon

Matt 3:16

The distinct hallmark of Jesus’ spirituality: He lived and ministered under this open heaven. He was in communion with His Father daily. He knew the mind and heart of God. He was the ambassador of heaven. He was the true light, the true son of God (Jn 1:9,18). Walking in the perfect will of heaven, nothing was impossible in His pathway. Demons fled, diseases dissolved; even death could not stand in His way (Mt 10:1,8; Lk 7:14-15).

The blessing of Jesus was transferred to the church at His death. When the veil tore open at Jesus’ crucifixion (Mt 27:51), the heavens were opened permanently for all who would believe in Him and become children of God – for Jesus Himself is the stairway to heaven (Jn 1:51; Jn 14:6). In Him is the source of every covenantal blessings. He is the portal and gateway of heaven itself.

The official date of the inception of the open heaven portal took place on the day of Pentecost in the Upper Room. The mighty supernatural invasion of the Spirit of God was poured out, baptized the waiting believers (Acts 2:1-4). Under the shed blood of the Lamb of God, living under an open heaven is now our inheritance, and it should be our expectation. This coming global outpouring of revival fires, there will be 500 major portal openings. Those who are the Enoch generation will take advantage of this season of open door to pierce the veil and bring down heaven upon their own dwelling places (Isa 64:1)
