

The Irrevocable Presence

"I will never leave you nor forsake you."

(Heb 13:5)

In the coming new move of God, the new songs of the Lord shall have one grand theme: the magnification of the greatness of the Lord (Ps 96:1-4). Why is the Lord great in the eyes of the psalmist? He added that the Lord is good (Lam 3:25) towards His saints in supplying daily salvation continually (Ps 96:2). He will never cease to be good to His people for His mercy endures forever (Lam 3:22-23).

When the Lord comes with His great awe, the fear of the Lord will affect every heart (Ps 99:1,3). The manifestations of His glorious throne and the angelic realm of the seraphim and the cherubim will establish righteousness, holiness and justice on the earth (Ps 99:1-5). The heavenly portals will be opened and He shall be the avenger of the saints (v. 9,8). The true priesthood built upon intimacy shall be established (v. 6). The revelation and hidden wisdom will be made known to His people (v. 7). The king shall be highly exalted on that day (v. 4).

As this promise is irrevocably true so He shall abide with us: "For the Lord is good; His steadfast love endures forever, and His faithfulness to all generations." (Ps 100:5). At the beginning of this new year, the Lord impressed upon my mind this living truth: "Be strong and of good courage; be not afraid, nor be dismayed: for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go." (Josh 1:9). He shall forever be called "Immanuel" for God is with us! He is the source of every blessing in life (James 1:17). He is all we ever need.
