

God Is At Work Even In The Darkness

“Peter therefore went out, and the other disciple, and were going to the tomb. So they both ran together, and the other disciple outran Peter and came to the tomb first. And he, stooping down and looking in, saw the linen cloths lying there; yet he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb; and he saw the linen cloths lying there, and the handkerchief that had been around His head, not lying with the linen cloths, but folded together in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who came to the tomb first, went in also; and he saw and believed. For as yet they did not know the Scripture, that He must rise again from the dead. Then the disciples went away again to their own homes.

But Mary stood outside by the tomb weeping, and as she wept she stooped down and looked into the tomb. And she saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. Then they said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?”

She said to them, “Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him.”

John 20:3-13

“Do not, therefore, fling away your fearless confidence, for it carries a great and glorious compensation of reward.”

Hebrew 10:35

John witnessed an empty tomb and some left behind funeral clothes. Mary saw the 2 white-robed angels knowing that a supernatural God was still at work and He was very much alive and not dead.

Are you discouraged today by the poor depressing circumstance: an empty tomb and lifeless funeral garments? Do you see your situation as a place of death (cemetery) or a place of resurrection (Zoe life)? Do you realize that God can bring to life the deadliest of situation even when the situation seems hopeless? According to John's testimony, God is very much at work in the darkness you are experiencing.

Whether your situation seems dead for 3 days or 3 months, God is the author of resurrection of life. Even in the darkest moment, He has conquered the grave to announce to you that your dream will not go through a funeral and stay embalmed with the dead. Sing the song of 1 Corinthians 10:13 for Hebrew 13:6 will be there by your side to sustain thee. Praise His goodness for help is on His way to deliver you (Ps 54:6,7). Lift up the banner of Psalm 54:4, the great uplifter of thy soul.
