

The Functional Bliss of Faith

“Does he who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you do so by works of the law, or by hearing with faith?”

Galatians 3:5

The supernatural realities of Christianity are affirmed by the conviction of faith. (Hebrews 11:1). Faith sees the unseen realms. Faith is the ‘sixth sense’ perception of the human spirit. How do we sense the reality of God? Every Christian is indwelt by the Holy Spirit. We know this truth by embracing the word with a believing heart. (John 14:17). In our initial salvation at conversion, we received a foretold many-fold blessing: peace, justification, the love of God and the Holy Spirit. For I believed steadfastly in the written truth of Roman 5:1-5. Unwavering conviction of faith is the key to access the treasury of Romans 5:17.

Paul asked a rhetorical question in Galatian 3:5, the obvious answer: ‘by the hearing with faith. ‘therefore, the Spirit came the first time, and the Spirit keeps in being supplied, through the channel of faith. Whatever he accomplishes in us and through us is by the precious operations of faith. The realms of miraculous are only open to the candidates of faith (Mark 9:23; 10:27). The effectual participant of the kingdom, enjoying the full blessings of 2 Peter 1:3-11 are engaged by the precious faith we obtained. (v5)

Prayer offers unlimited possibilities and miraculous answers only if living faith is present. (Luke 11:8-10). Every time you utter a prayer, let it be filled with fervent faith-filled petition!(Luke 11:11).Hence, the degree of the outpouring and manifestation of the Holy Spirit in your life depends on the mighty operation of faith: ‘How much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him”(Luke 11:13)The success of the prayer exploits depends on the measure of our proactive faith in believing Him. How much more can you believe today? (Romans 8:32). In believing, you are receiving! (Matthew 21:22)

Walking as heirs of all things,
Galatians 4:7; 3:26,