

5 Checklists at Shift Season

“You have skirted this mountain long enough; turn northward...For the Lord your God has blessed you in all the work of your hand. He knows your trudging through this great wilderness. These forty years the Lord your God has been with you: you have lack nothing...This day are to cross over at Ar, the boundary of Moab.

(Duet 2:3,7,18)

This is the new season of crossing over to our new destiny, the promised land of new era. Be wholly prepared to step over from the land of familiarity to pursue the new wine destiny. We must be fully equipped with steadfast attitude of faith to embrace the prophetic unknown elements of the new journey. Let these 5-attitude undergirded your walk.

- Remain open -minded accessing the new realms of creativity
You have never been here before so be childlike to engage the new zone boldly
- Remain in a constant state of belief to engage the unknown encounter paths. You will be confronted with tons of questions and doubts. Drop them and put on afresh attitude of whole trust in God.
- Remain unoffendable. Stay in the river of His love and be forgiving at all seasons. For people will never understand what you are doing and consider you weird and strange. You may even feel being an outcast from the main community. Stay anchored in the secret Place, He shall be your strength.
- Remain cool. Avoid being sucked into an anxiety driven syndrome. Don't be driven by panic and apprehensive of the unknown future. Lay all worries at His Feet for it bring spiritual deafness to hear from heaven.
- Remain flexible and adaptable to the winds of new change. There is a tendency to hesitate from moving forward. A real temptation to stay in the known comfort zone. For it is a safe zone but lack the freshness of new graces.

In this season, stay in the place of faithfulness and loyal love to Jesus. Love Jesus passionately, and His love shall be your trusted guide to bring you into the promised land of your tomorrow. Let the promise of John 16:3 be your steadfast assurance.
