

Open Heaven Portal Is Our Portion (I)

“And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth produced its fruit.”

James 5:18

After the old Patriarch Isaac blessed Jacob with the blessings of the first born, he fled for Bethel. Jacob was on the run from the murderous fury of his temperamental brother Esau. Upon arrival, it was twilight hour and he was passing through a strange land. In moment of recollection, his past was a mess and his future seemed uncertain and bleak. His hope was that a relative in a faraway land would give him refuge and hideout. In the state of hopelessness, he journeyed on aimlessly not knowing he was an heir of the prophetic promises.

However, a sudden shift of destiny took place that eventful night. A divine suddenlies took place in a prophetic dream. The course of Jacob's journey was radically changed by the sovereign revelation of an open heaven above his life. There was nothing he had done to deserve it. He merely slept and received an open heaven portal encounter! God's favour came upon Jacob was the outcome of the covenant's blessing of Genesis 27, not on personal merit of good conduct. The covenant promises are the keys to unlock the ancient portals and wells of revival.

By Genesis 27 account, Jacob became an heir to the promises of covenant. By the power of the covenant, he inherited the portion of the open heaven portal. Likewise, like Jacob, we are heirs of the new covenant (Rom 8:17; 2 Pet 1:4). We are heirs of grace, not through anything we could achieve ourselves (Eph 2:8,9) but by sovereign grace through the shed blood of Jesus Christ. In God's sovereign timing, this year, the open heaven encounters are our inheritance today! (Joel 2:28; Acts 2:17)
